First Reconciliation and First Communion are important steps in the life of a Catholic. As primary Catechists for your child's faith formation, you are asked to support your child in their preparation process. You are reminded that Family Members are role models, and spirituality is learned first in the home, the Parish Program's role is to support families and supplement learning. The signing of the Sacramental Agreement by the family indicates a willingness to commit as a family to the parish Sacramental Program.

Responsibilities of Families Preparing for 1st Reconciliation & 1st Communion:

- To serve as models for their students by being committed Christians
- A willingness to live the faith as a Catholic Christian; regular Sunday Mass participation; and time spent in prayer with the Lord.
- To support and nurture their children's faith.
- To make church activities and commitments a priority in family life.
- Attendance at all retreats and parent meetings.
