

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish

This Week's Message

The celebration today of the birthday of John the Baptist reminds us that like John, like the prophet Isaiah and like Elizabeth Ann Seton we too have a role to play in God's plan of salvation. What role are you presently playing in God's plan? How might that role change in the future? –Fr. Mark

Thank You Jill Sires!

After serving as the Coordinator of Children's Ministry, Sacramental Coordinator and VBS Coordinator at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton for 3 years, Jill Sires will be leaving her position on June 30. Her energy and love for Jesus Christ and children is contagious. Although we are happy for her, we will miss her and thank her for all she has done to build up the children's weekend programming at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Please keep Jill and her family in your prayers as she begins her new adventure as a 6th grade teacher at Regis Middle School this fall!

New Member Welcome Ministry

We will be starting a new ministry to help new members get registered, answer their questions, and meet other members. If this is something you are interested in sharing your time, talent and ideas for, please contact Kelli DeVries, kdevries@seasp.org or 319-393-3778.

Prayer Teams Forming Now!

St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa) said, "My secret is simple. I pray." This is the secret behind authentic ministry! We have a wonderful Prayer Chain ministry in place and you can join this ministry at any time. In addition to the Prayer Chain, we are forming Prayer Teams to pray for or various programs and events at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. For example, praying specifically for our Alpha program, Religious Education, New Member Ministry, ect... The possibilities are endless. If you are interested, please contact Kelli at kdevries@seasp.org or 319-393-3778.

Metro Catholic Outreach

We will be closed Wed., Jul. 4. We will be accepting deliveries & holding regular office hours the other 3 days of that week.
